Attorney General Settles With Randy Boggess d/b/a Randy's Stereo Outlet

At the Permanent Injunction hearing held Thursday, April 24, 2003, the Attorney General's Office and the defendants entered into an agreed order whereby the defendants agreed that the terms set forth in the preliminary injunction would permanently remain in effect. Specifically, the defendants, Randy's Stereo Outlet, and Randy Boggess, individually and doing business as Randy's Stereo Outlet, are forever barred from conducting any business in the State of West Virginia. Randy Boggess also agreed to post a cash bond in the amount of $25,000, no later than 5:00 o'clock p.m., Tuesday, April 29, 2003, and to provide refunds to all consumers who had filed complaints with the State. If the consumers received merchandise from Randy Boggess they must return it to the State in order to get the refund. In the event the defendants fail to provide refunds to consumers within a reasonable amount of time, the bond posted by the defendants shall be forfeited to the State of West Virginia and the proceeds therefrom used to provide restitution to the consumers.
